

South Central Public Health Partnership

TRAINING PROFESSIONALS TO PROTECT THE PUBLIC

<http://lms.southcentralpartnership.org/scphp>

Facilitator Training

Instructor: Andrew C. Rucks, MBA, PhD

Course Description

In this course, the instructor will introduce methods and strategies used in facilitating meetings, workshops, tabletop exercises, and other events.

Learning Objectives

- Identify the roles of a facilitator
- Identify the four principles of adult learning
- Understand the three stages of facilitation

Core Competencies for Public Health Professionals Council on Linkages between Academia and Public Health Practice*

- 3A2: Communicates in writing and orally, in person, and through electronic means, with linguistic and cultural proficiency
- 3A4: Conveys public health information using a variety of approaches
- 3A6: Applies communication and group dynamic strategies in interactions with individuals and groups

MCH Competencies Maternal and Child Health Competencies developed by the Association of Teachers in Maternal and Child Health (ATMCH)*

- C12: Effective written and oral communication skills, including accurate and effective preparation and presentation of reports to agency boards, administrative organizations, legislative bodies, consumers, and/or the media using demographic, statistical, programmatic, and scientific information.
- C13: Use appropriate techniques for development and dissemination of professional development and continuing education programs for MCH professionals.

To register for this course visit us at <http://lms.southcentralpartnership.org>